AND HOW TO CARVE

Tenderloin Roast Considered to be the Choicest Part of the Beef

How To Carve Sit in a chair slightly higher than the ordinary dining chair, never stand. Use a carving knife with a strong and keen blade. Cut thin slices clear across the top from A to B, and if your roast is from our shop you'll have a feast fit for a king.

There Is No "Just As Good" As G. & B. PEARL Wire Cloth—

The wonderful durability of G. & B. PEARL Wire Cloth as well as its beauty is due to its metallic coating. The composition of and method of applying this coating is exclusive with us and used only on genuine PEARL. So—when a dealer offers you something 'just as good as PEARL'—he is mistaken. It isn't so. There can be no 'just as good.'

For Permanently
Screening Doors,
Windows and Porches

GILBERT & BENNETT
WIRE CLOTH

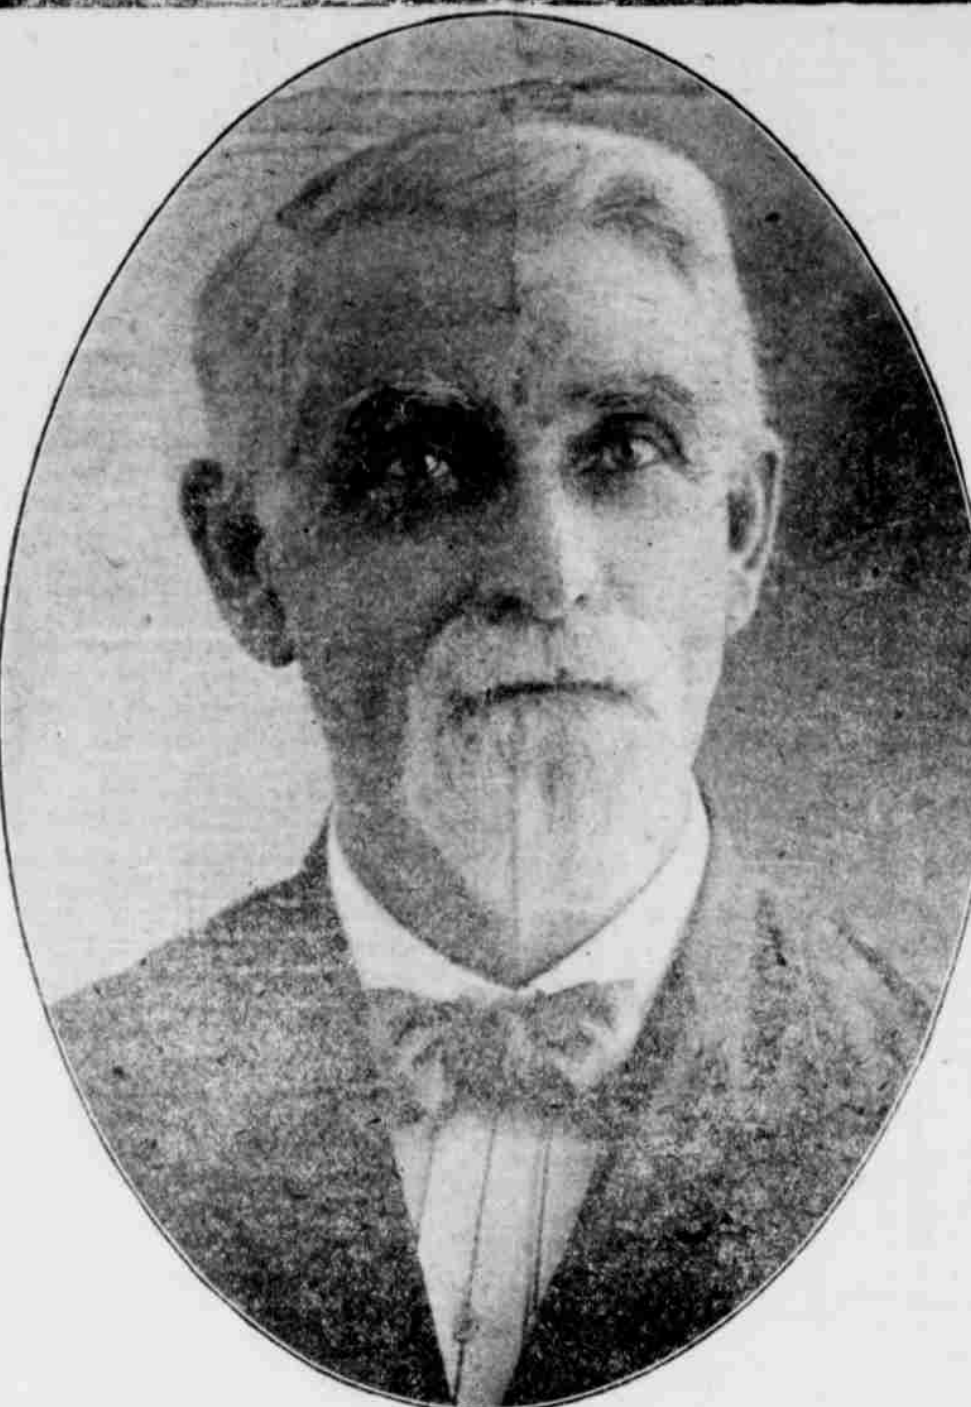

Made in Two Weights
— regular and
Extra Heavy.

The day you screen with G. & B. PEARL you end trouble and expense. No painting—no repainting—PEARL lasts and satisfies. It is the handsomest screen and the cleanest as well as offering least obstruction to the vision.

Look for two copper wires in the selvage and the Round Tag bearing the Gilbert & Bennett name on each roll. They identify the genuine article, and for the sake of screen satisfaction they are worth looking for and insisting on.

THIRTY YEARS SINCE PAW PAW SAVINGS BANK OPENED DOORS FOR BUSINESS

JOHN W. FREE

Venerable President of Paw Paw Savings Bank who has contributed much to its success during past thirty years, and is still at his post

Wednesday, May 10, 1916, was the 30th anniversary of the birth of the Paw Paw Savings bank.

On May 16, 1886, the Paw Paw Savings bank opened its doors for business with the following directors: Jonathan J. Woodman, Frank W. Sellick, John W. Free, William J. Sellick, John Lyle, William Lyle, Daniel Lyle and Edgar A. Crane.

The first officers of the bank were Frank W. Sellick, president; Edgar A. Crane, vice president; John W. Free, cashier.

Our esteemed and venerable fellow citizen, Oran W. Rowland, was the first depositor, and it might be interesting to add that he has been a continuous patron during the intervening years.

While the experiences of this banking house have not varied materially from many another similar enterprise, still it is interesting to know that from its very inception it has enjoyed a large business and each succeeding year has shown a marked increase, until today the Paw Paw Savings bank is known as one of the solid substantial and progressive banking institutions of southwestern Michigan.

There is also a pathetic side to this little story of the bank's history, found in the fact that out of the original directors all have passed to their reward but two, John W. Free and Wm. J. Sellick. The personnel of the founders was of the highest order. They were men of splendid records, both of successful and business men, and men of sterling integrity and influential citizenship.

The marked success attained by this bank was not brought about by accident, environment or "luck" so called. Very few of the great achievements, be they financial, social or political, can be attributed to any of these causes. Success follows the strict and close attention to details. Application, conservatism, positiveness alloyed with courtesy, all are necessary attributes. But over all and above all honesty is the one sterling necessity to the achievement of success.

It is only simple justice here to add that John W. Free, active head of the bank since its organization, possesses all of these attributes. For 30 years he has given the business his undivided personal attention, has for many years been its president, and to him more than all else is due the enviable standing the bank now enjoys. Every day Mr. Free may be found at his desk, waiting on customers and directing the bank's affairs with his old-time courtesy. Surely the years have dealt kindly with him. His judgment, business ability and long active business life have made his efficiency of the highest order and he is rich in the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens.

The present officers of the bank are: John W. Free, president; Wm. R. Sellick, vice president; C. A. Wolfs, cashier; Blaine Warner, teller.

ACCEPTS INVITA- TION TO AUGUSTA

Paw Paw Odd Fellows will be the guest of Dr. Emery Thursday May 18.

Paw Paw Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F. accepted an invitation from the Rev. William Forbes Emery to come to Augusta Thursday May 18 and assist in instituting a new Odd Fellow lodge in that village. Rev. Emery has been working for the establishing of Oddfellowship in Augusta for several months and his efforts have been crowned with abundance of success. We understand the new lodge will start with over 40 members. The local lodge have accepted his invitation to come to Augusta and assist in the ceremonies and to confer the four degrees of Oddfellowship on the large class. Our local boys are planning to make the trip by auto and it is expected that there will be about 15 automobile loads from here. There will be an afternoon session at 3 o'clock, supper at 6 o'clock and banquet at midnight with a possibility of breakfast for breakfast. Every Oddfellow who can possibly range to go to Augusta will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity. Dr. Emery writes that this will be his "reception" to the boys of No. 18, and that Augusta has not spared any pains or money to make Paw Paw's visit one long to be remembered in our Fraterna circle.

IT'S A GIRL THANK YOU

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lynn Free are rejoicing and are exceedingly glad over the arrival of little Miss Free to gladden their home and make happier their lives. The little Miss arrived Monday morning May 8th, and is a May blossom of the rarest kind. She is honored by given the names of her two grandmothers, Miss Sarah Arlette Free. She tipped the scales at six pounds and is surely a dainty little piece of love and humanity. Father, mother and little one are doing well and the entire city of Paw Paw are much pleased and extend their congratulations to the Free family.

Hon. C. C. Phillips of Bangor the first of the week was taken to Rochester, Minn. to the Mayo brothers hospital for an operation. Mr. Phillips is well known through the county and all wish him a speedy recovery to health.
